

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Irina Chernetsky

E-mail: irina.chernetsky@mail.huji.ac.il

Education

- 2004-2013 Ph.D., "The Quattrocento Image of Florence as an Ideal City: Its Past, Present and Future." (supervisor Prof. Luba Freedman)
Department of the History of Art, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem
- 1999-2004 M.A., "The Realization of the Idea of the Ideal Centralized Church in Italy, 1450-1500." (supervisor Prof. Luba Freedman)
Department of the History of Art, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem
- 1993-1997 B.A., Department of the History of Art and Department of Sociology & Anthropology, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem

Work Experience

- 2012-2016 Lecturer, "Aesthetics: Critical Thought About Art,"
Department of the History of Art, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem
- 2015-2016 Lecturer, different courses on the Renaissance and Baroque Art
The School of History, University of Haifa
- 2014-2015 Lecturer, "Introduction to the Art of the Renaissance and Baroque,"
Department of the History of Art, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem
- 2000-2009 Assistant for the course "Introduction to the Art of the Renaissance and Baroque," Department of the History of Art, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem
- 2005-2007 Assistant for the course "General Introduction to the History of Art,"
Department of the History of Art, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem
- 1998-2008 Researcher, Center for Jewish Art, Hebrew University, Jerusalem

Projects

- 2014-2016 Post-Doctoral participant in the research project, sponsored by ISF.
Theme – The Presence of Jerusalem in Florence from the Twelfth to the Fifteenth Centuries
- 2015-2016 Spinoza Post- Doctoral fellowship, The School of History, University of Haifa. Theme – preparing a book ("Florence among the Glorious Cities: Inheritance of Sanctity and Power") for publishing
- 2013-2014 Post-Doctoral participant in the Spectrum research project, guided by Prof. Bianca Kuhnel. Theme – The Quattrocento Vision of Florence as a New Jerusalem
- 2012-2014 Post-Doctoral participant in the research project, supported by GIF and guided by Prof. Luba Freedman (The Hebrew University) and Prof. Dieter Blume (Jena University). Theme – printed edition of Ovid's Metamorphoses, illustrated by Virgil Solis in Nuremberg in 1563
- 2008-2011 Doctoral participant in the research group "Exegetic Imagination" Scholion, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem

Publications

- "The Creation of the World by Virgil Solis, □ Zeitschrift für Kunstgeschichte 79 (2016), pp. 211-225
- "The Vision of Florence as a New Rome: Some Rhetorical and Visual Aspects, □ in Interpretive Imagination. Religion and Arts in Jewish and Neighbouring Cultures, ed. by Ruth HaCohen, Galit Hasan Rokem, Richard I. Cohen, Ilana Pardes, Magnes Press, 2016, pp. 72-93 (in Hebrew)
- "The Depiction of Florence as Jerusalem in Lorenzo Ghiberti's Gates of Paradise, □ under review in Artibus et Historiae
- "San Giovanni and the Idea of Florence, □ will be published in forthcoming peer review international volume Projections of Jerusalem in Europe: A Monumental Network, edited by Bianca Kühnel, Renana Bartal and Neta Bodner, 2018
- Ariella Amar & Irina Chernetsky. Shadai 'ot, the Collection of the Jewish Museum of Greece: Documentation of the Index of Jewish Art. Jerusalem: Center for Jewish Art, 2007

Publications in Preparation

- "The Figure of Augustus Octavian in the Creation of the Myth of Florence" – an article
- Florence among the Glorious Cities: Inheritance of Sanctity and Power - a book

New Projects

- Métamorphose d'Ovide Figurée by Bernard Salomon: Perception of Classical Mythology in the Sixteenth-Century France